To: All Georgia Nurse Aide Education Programs:

I am sending you this note to inform you of upcoming changes to the Nurse Aide examination process in Georgia. Although the NNAAP exam is not electronic, the registration and scheduling of the exam will be done on-line.

Effective July 27, 2017, all Georgia Nurse Aide candidates will be able to register online and schedule their own examination(s). Candidate will make payment for the examinations using a credit/debit card (American Express, MasterCard or Visa) or using electronic vouchers. Training programs may purchase vouchers from the voucher store at this web link:
<https://wsr.pearsonvue.com/vouchers/pricelist/naga.asp>

All existing candidate information currently in system where paper application information was processed will be transferred to the new on-line platform. As noted in prior communications, there will be a period of time in which no registration or testing can take place. This "blackout period" will be from July 7th until August 7th, therefore we will not be accepting paper applications with a post mark after June 20, 2017. On July 27th, students will be able to complete registration online and schedule their exams with a test date on or after August 8th.

In order to assist you with the new on-line upload process, there will be a series of training webinars for you the providers/training programs. Attendance at any of these sessions requires advanced registration. Please register on Survey Monkey using the link below. I have also listed the dates and times of the training sessions below. If you are unable to attend any of these sessions, the recorded webinar will be made available. We will forward additional information at a later date.

I am attaching a copy of the Provider Training Guide so you can review and become more familiar with the process prior to the training sessions. I am also including a copy of the Candidate Training Guide in case you wanted to review with your students. This guide will also be posted on the PearsonVUE website starting July 26th.

Training dates, times and the link to register for this training are listed below:
